Title: Ginger

Author: Charlotte Voake

If you love cats like I do, then you will love this story! Ginger is an older cat who loves his settled life. A little girl who feeds him delicious meals, a lovely basket in which to curl up and nap – what more could he want? But one day the little girl brings home a kitten, who pounces on him, eats his food and even tries to sleep in his bed. Ginger leaves home and runs away. Can the little girl get him to return home?
